Section 4

On January 10, 2016, at approximately 2130 hours, Jonathan J. Warner dob [REDACTED] arrived at the Lynchburg General Hospital emergency room and was being seen for a psychiatric evaluation. Then on January 11, 2016, at approximately 0415 hours, Warner was transferred across the driveway to the Psychiatric Emergency Center, Dillard Building, Lynchburg General Hospital. Upon arriving there, Warner was filling out some documentation at the center. He became increasingly more agitated and then attacked Lieutenant Wesley Gillespie (Centra Security). During the scuffle he unsuccessfully attempted to disarm Lieutenant Gillespie of his firearm, however he was able to disarm Lieutenant Gillespie of his Taser. Warner then fired the Taser, nearly missing Officer Jason Bryan (Centra Security). The probes hit a wall within the center. He then charged at Officer Bryan and struck him with the activated Taser in his left shoulder causing a minor injury. He then ran through the center. Lieutenant Gillespie then shot Warner several times. Forensic Nurse later photographed Jonathan J. Warner while a patient at Lynchburg General Hospital. All Training records for Wesley Thomas Gillespie would verify training records as a security officer in the state of Virginia, for the purpose of this investigation.
